

Brandermill Community Association Committee Code of Ethics

By serving on a duly created committee of Brandermill Community Association (“BCA”), committee members shall:

1. Work toward the betterment of quality of life in Brandermill
2. Act with integrity in all relationships
3. Not knowingly make false or fraudulent statements
4. Be a trusted steward of BCA resources
5. Avoid any conflicts of interest or impropriety between my private interest and my professional role as a member of the BCA committee
6. Treat all persons in an even-handed, respectful, and courteous manner
7. Abide by all governing documents pertaining to homeowner associations, to include BCA and committee governing documents